How risky is it?

The value of the Fund can go down as well as up. You could lose money.

One way to gauge risk is to look at how much of a fund’s returns change over time. This is called “volatility”.

In general, funds with higher volatility will have returns that change more over time. They typically have a greater chance of losing money and may have a greater chance of higher returns. Funds with lower volatility tend to have returns that change less over time. They typically have lower returns and may have a lower chance of losing money.

Risk rating

CC&L Funds has rated the volatility of this Fund as low to medium.

This rating is based on how much the Fund’s returns have changed from year to year. It doesn’t tell you how volatile the Fund will be in the future. The rating can change over time. A fund with a low risk rating can still lose money.

For more information about the risk rating and specific risks that can affect the Fund’s returns, see the sections on “What are the risks of investing in the Fund?”, “Investment Risk Classification Methodology” and “Who should invest in this Fund?” under the “Specific Information About Each of the Mutual Funds Described in this Document” section of the Fund’s simplified prospectus.

No guarantees

Like most mutual funds, this Fund doesn’t have any guarantees. You may not get back the money you invest.

How has the Fund performed?

This section tells you how Series F units of the Fund have performed over the past ten calendar years. Returns are after expenses have been deducted. These expenses reduce the Fund's returns.

Year-by-year returns

This chart shows how Series F units of the Fund performed in each of the past ten calendar years. The Fund dropped in value in two of the past ten calendar years. The range of returns and change from year to year can help you assess how risky the Fund has been in the past. It does not tell you how the Fund will perform in the future.

Best and worst 3-month returns

This table shows the best and worst returns for Series F units of the Fund in a 3-month period during the past ten calendar years. The best and worst 3-month returns could be higher or lower in the future. Consider how much of a loss you could afford to take in a short period of time.

	Return	3 months ending	If you invested $1,000 at the beginning of the period
Best return	9.08%	June 2020	Your investment would rise to $1,090.76.
Worst return	-7.40%	March 2020	Your investment would drop to $925.98.

Average return

The annual compounded return of Series F units of the Fund was 2.34% over the period between inception and March 31, 2023. If you had invested $1,000 in Series F units of the Fund at inception, your investment would be worth $1,287.43 on March 31, 2023.

Who is this Fund for?

Investors who:

- want a fund seeking exposure primarily to high-yield bonds;
- are contributing to the income portion of a diversified portfolio;
- are comfortable with low to medium risk; and
- can handle changes in the value of their investment.

A word about tax

In general, you'll have to pay income tax on any money you make on a fund. How much you pay depends on the tax laws where you live and whether or not you hold the fund in a registered plan, such as a Registered Retirement Savings Plan or a Tax-Free Savings Account.

Keep in mind that if you hold your fund in a non-registered account, fund distributions are included in your taxable income, whether you get them in cash or have them reinvested.

How much does it cost?

The following shows the fees and expenses you could pay to buy, own and sell Series F units of the Fund. The fees and expenses – including any commissions – can vary among series of a fund and among funds. Higher commissions can influence representatives to recommend one investment over another. Ask about other funds and investments that may be suitable for you at a lower cost.

1. Sales charges

You do not pay a sales charge when you buy Series F units of the Fund.

2. Fund expenses

You don't pay these expenses directly. They affect you because they reduce the Fund's returns. As of December 31, 2022, the Fund's expenses were 1.01% of its value. This equals $10.10 for every $1,000 invested.

	Annual rate (as a % of the Fund's value)
Management expense ratio (MER)	1.01%
This is the total of the Fund's management fee and operating expenses.
Trading expense ratio (TER)	0.00%
These are the Fund's trading costs.
